Come and visit Holland's most spectacular event of the year...the flower festival!

The flower season in Holland is only available between March and May. This is when the flowers are at its peak and blooming. The best way to see this amazing array of flowers is by bicycle. On this tour you will cycle on small cycle paths through the spectacular multi coloured flower fields and you will visit the world famous Keukenhof flower festival.

Not only will you explore the colours of Holland, you will also cycle through the sand dunes of the North Sea and get a taste of what Holland wheelyhas to offer...all in 1 day!

The only thing you will have to worry about is having a fully charged camera and sufficient space on your memory card to take home all the wonderful memories!
