This tour will take you through the center of Amsterdam, following the Amstel river to an old windmill dated back to 1636. This same place is also where Rembrandt was inspired and made many of his paintings. From here you will cycle along quiet cycle paths to the Amsterdamse Bos (Amsterdam's forest) where you have the chance to try some of our famous Dutch pancakes at a local pannenkoekenhuis (pancake house). You can choose out of 51 different pancakes!

After lunch, cycle along an old train track and past the Olympic stadium where the 1938 Olympics were held along with many national football games. It's also the original home of Ajax, the Amsterdam football team.

You will then cycle through the south of Amsterdam admiring the luxurious old buildings before heading to the Vondelpark. The Vondelpark is where the locals hang out, especially on a sunny day! As we return, we will cycle through Leidseplein and along the canals of Amsterdam. Get acquainted with the famous Westerkerk and the Anne Frank house.

Before the tour is over we will cycle past the famous cycle parking at Central Station then onto Nieuwmarkt where there is a local market in front of the historic Waaghuis (De Waag, The weighing house) which was originally built in 1488.

If you are looking for a tour that shows all of what Amsterdam has to offer, then join us now for a Wheely Dutch Experience!
