This tour will lead you mainly along the waterways of Holland. From the north in Amsterdam to the southern point in Maastricht. You will cycle, walk, swim and even visit the Hertog Jan Brewery...

On day 1 we will cycle through small Dutch villages, along the LoosdrechtsePlassen, a water recreation area popular with the locals and bordering the UtrechtseHeuvelrug National Park. At the end of the day we will stay overnight near the UtrechtseHeuvelrug.

Day 2 we will begin cycling through the UtrechtseHeuvelrug where we will meet up with the Nederrijn. We will follow the river to Nijmegen, a city full of character. From Nijmegen we will then head south to Beers where we will overnight.

Day 3 we'll predominately be following the Maas. This will be a varied day as we weave in, out and over the river. We'll be cycling off road on forest tracks and through local villages. You will get a taste of the Hertog Jan beer by taking a tour in the local Hertog Jan Brewery in Arcen or you can relax at the Arcen Thermal baths. The choice is yours!

On day 4 we will continue along the Maas to Ohé en Laak. You will take the 'off the beaten track', cycle along the Maas, through farmland and take in the fresh air of the country before settling down near the TeggersePlas (a lake) in Ohé en Laak.

We will end on day 5 with the last kilometers leaving the Maas and head for the National Park HogeKempen (in Belgium) where we hope to see some local wildlife. Once in Maastricht you have the option to return by train or to stay an extra night. This is optional and at your own expense.
